

★★★
PROFESSIONAL

IDC Punch Down Tool

This SCHWAIGER® punch down tool is used to professionally install cable wires in a network connector socket. Thanks to the built-in sensor, this tool allows for correct installation and cutting of cable wires. The foldable screwdriver can be used to remove socket covers and exposed wires can be loosened with the draw hook. The IDC punch down tool can be safely transported in the provided belt holster.

ARTICLE INFORMATION

Article Nr
EAN

LSA300 531
4004005300970

Last updated: 19.01.2021

FEATURES (LSA300 531)

- LSA Plus simple tool for professional and secure connection of wires
- punch down tool for professional and secure installation of wires in a network connector socket
- tool with integrated sensor for simultaneously inserting and cutting the cable core
- integrated screwdriver blade (foldable) to remove covers
- integrated draw hook (foldable) to loosen connected cable cores
- content: 1x LSA PLUS application tool

TECHNICAL DATA

Material of product	metal plastic-coated
Colour	grey
Dimensions (width)	70 mm
Dimensions (height)	125 mm
Dimensions (depth)	20 mm
Packaging	sealed blister SBL02

