TV Wall Mount "MOTION 9"

for flexible screen positioning for campers

The SCHWAIGER® TV wall bracket is particularly suitable for the attachment of a flat screen in a caravan/mobile. It impresses by its simple installation, the compact design, an enclosed spirit level and the integrated cable guide. The support arm with three joints can be tilted forward, rotated and swivelled to the left or right. The wall bracket thus enables highly flexible and secure positioning for the best view of the screen.
